

Animal Science Products Expands Sales Into China Through Their Newest Distribution Partner, “Shanghai Balantek Biotechnology Co., Ltd.”

March 1, 2010

Nacogdoches, Texas - Animal Science Products Inc., a leading privately-owned premix blender, feed additive distributor and package goods manufacturer, has signed a distributor agreement with Shanghai Balantek Biotechnology Co., Ltd. of China.

Shanghai Balantek Biotechnology Co., Ltd, led by Mr. Richard Xia, President, will be distributing the entire family of ASP Water/Vaccine Stabilizers as well as PKA, pH water treatment. The Stabilizer line includes Vac-Pac and Vac-Pac Plus for water application vaccination, Spray-Vac liquid for spray vaccination in both the hatchery and poultry house, and Opti-Vac for protection of eye drop vaccines. The newest family member, Vac-Pac Plus Farm-Pac, with its unique packaging consisting of 100gram re-usable clear jars, was designed to meet the variable farm size of the Chinese market. These products are recognized around the globe for performance and value.

Commenting on the addition to the ASP family, ASP President Mr. Bailey Reynolds said, “We welcome Shanghai Balantek Biotechnology Co., Ltd. to the Animal Science Products family of distributors. The Reynolds family is very pleased to be working with Mr. Richard Xia, Mr. Colin Li, and the entire Shanghai Balantek team. Both Richard and Colin bring extensive experience in many areas that ASP has common interests. Balantek, like ASP, value innovative products they can introduce to their customers. Their entire staff is extremely quality conscious and the values of the two companies align very well.”
